coming out
10.11.14

National Coming Out Day is an internationally observed civil awareness day celebrating the power in publicly identifying as lesbian, gay, bisexual, and/or transgender (LGBT) or an ally. Coming out is not a one-time event, but is a constant process of day-to-day life. Every person who speaks up changes more hearts and minds, and creates new advocates for equality.

Spirit Day encourages all to make a public witness against bullying and to show their support for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender youth. Observed annually since 2010, individuals, congregations, schools, organizations, corporations, and public figures wear purple, which symbolizes "spirit" on the rainbow flag.

Ally Week, taking place this year October 12-18 is a whole week where we can engage in a national dialogue about how everyone can work to become better allies to LGBT youth. Whether you're a lesbian adult working to make schools safer for today's youth, or a gay student organizing to create safe spaces for your trans friends, everyone has an opportunity this week not only to recognize their allyship but to take action!

Reformation Day commemorates Martin Luther's posting of his Ninety-five Theses on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany on October 31, 1517. This act triggered the movement in world history known as the Reformation. ReconcilingWorks acknowledges that the Church is in continuous need of reformation as it seeks to become an even safer place for all God's LGBT children.
