

BUILDING AN INCLUSIVE CHURCH TRAIN THE TRAINER

ReconcilingWorks is excited to host the first national Building an Inclusive Church (BIC) Train the Trainer since 2013! This Train the Trainer is designed for those who have attended a BIC training and supported their faith community through a journey of discernment to becoming Reconciling in Christ (RIC)/Open and Affirming.

The three-day training will guide attendees through the following

- The agenda and full BIC Training
- Trainer tips and responses to frequently asked questions
- How to use Graceful Engagement to support an ecumenical group through the training
- Small group and large group discussion
- Small group practice sessions with facilitators
- All training materials and additional supporting resources

This training is open to ELCA members and ecumenical partners. If you are interested in attending the BIC Train the Trainer, there is a two-part application process.

Step ONE: Complete the BIC Train the Trainer Interest Form
